

Riemann Hypothesis and Selberg Eigenvalues Conjecture

Abstract:

In this paper we will give a direct proof of Riemann Hypothesis and Selberg eigenvalue conjecture, use some results of the classical complex analysis before 1900 year, and explain with a little Algebra and Physics.

Keywords: Barnes G-Function, Gamma Function, Riemann Zeta Function, Selberg Zeta Function, Riemann Hypothesis, Selberg Eigenvalues Conjecture

REFERENCES:

Barnes, E. W. "The Theory of the G-Function." Quart. J. Pure Appl. Math. 31, 264-314, 1900;

Dyson, F. J. "Fredholm Determinants and Inverse Scattering Problems." Commun. Math. Phys. 47, 171-183, 1976;

Kang Feng, Collected Works of Feng Kang (in Chinese), Beijing: Defense Industry Press, 1994;

Voros, A. "Spectral Functions, Special Functions and the Selberg Zeta Function." Commun. Math. Phys. 110, 439-465, 1987.

De-hao Yu, Natural Boundary Integral Methods and Its Applications, Beijing: Science Press, 2006 (Chinese Edition, 1993).

E-mail: chiaoluo@hotmail.com

Date: Dec. 14, 2008